MetroWest Community Manager Wins Prestigious Award

ORLANDO, Fla. (February 25, 2014) – MetroWest Master Association (MWMA) announces MetroWest Master Association Community Manager Julie Sanchez received the prestigious George Bailey Award from the West Orange Chamber of Commerce. The award honors an individual who has “demonstrated excellence in fostering partnerships for the benefit of the local community.” The award was given at the Big Orange Awards presented by Orlando Health in Ocoee, Florida.

Sanchez has been with MetroWest Master Association for 4 years. She has over 30 years' experience in property management, including multi-family, condominium, and homeowner association management, in addition to serving as president on eight (8) COA Boards. Her licenses and certifications include Community Association Manager (CAM), Certified Apartment Property Supervisor (CAPS), Certified Apartment Manager (CAM), and Certified Apartment Maintenance Technician (CAMT).
