ARTICLE XIII

The Association does hereby indemnify its Officers and Directors as provided in the By-Laws.

ARTICLE XIV

Amendments to these Articles shall be proposed and adopted in the following manner:

1. Proposal. Amendments may be proposed either by a vote of the majority of the entire Board adopting a resolution setting forth the proposed amendment to these Articles, directing that it be submitted to a vote at a meeting of members, or by the members of the Association by a vote of twenty-five (25%) percent of the voting interests entitled to a vote.

2. Call for Meeting. Upon the adoption of a resolution proposing any amendment to these Articles, the proposed amendment shall be transmitted to the appropriate Officer of the Association, who shall thereupon call a special joint meeting of the Board and the membership. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to give each member written notice stating the place, day, and hour of the meeting and setting forth the proposed amendment or a summary of the changes to be effected thereby and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose for which the meeting is called. Notice shall be delivered not less than ten (10) or more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by first-class mail. If mailed, the notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States Mail addressed to the member at the address which appears on the membership roster. Notice shall additionally be posted at a conspicuous location on the Condominium Property 14 continuous days preceding the meeting.

3. Vote Necessary. Prior to the election of a majority of the Board by other than the Subscriber, an amendment may be approved by sixty-six (66%) percent of the Board. ARTICLE XV

The share of a member in the funds and assets of the Association cannot be assigned, hypothecated or transferred in any manner, except as an appurtenance to a Unit. The funds and assets of the Association shall belong solely to the Association, subject to the limitation that the same be expended, held, or used for the benefit of the Association and its membership and for the purposes authorized in the Condominium Documents.

In the event of dissolution of the Association other than incident to a merger or consolidation, the assets of the Association shall be dedicated to a public body or conveyed to a not-for-profit organization with a similar purpose as the Association. If the last Board of Directors of the dissolved Association does not undertake to do so, any member may petition the Circuit Court having jurisdiction to appoint a receiver to manage the affairs of the dissolved Association and to manage the Condominium Property until such time as the assets of the Association may be dedicated to a public body or conveyed to a not-for-profit organization with a similar purpose as the Association.

ARTICLE XVI

The Association may enter into contracts or transact business with any firm, corporation, or other concern in which any or all Officers, Directors or members of the Association may have an interest of any nature whatsoever. No contract or business arrangement, including those entered or to be entered into with Subscriber, or managing agent, shall be invalidated in whole or part by the Association or any Officer, Director and/or member(s) thereof on the grounds that the Officer, Director and/or member(s) had an interest, whether adverse or not, in the contract, business arrangement or party contacted with, regardless of the fact that the vote of the Director, Officer or member(s) with an interest was necessary to obligate the association.

At any meeting of the Directors which shall authorize or ratify any contract or transaction any interested Director or Officer may vote or act thereat, with like force and effect, as if the Director or Officer had no interest [provided that in such case the nature of interest (though not necessarily the extent or details thereof) shall be disclosed, or shall have been known to the Directors or a majority thereof]. A general notice that a Director or Officer is interested in any corporation other concern of any kind above referred shall be a sufficient disclosure thereof. No person shall be disqualified from holding office as Director or Officer of the Association by reason of any adverse interest. No Director, Officer, or member having an adverse interest shall be liable to the Association or to any member or creditor thereof, or to any other person, for any loss incurred by it under reason of the contract or transaction, nor shall any such Director, Officer, member or entity in which said member is involved, be accountable for any gains or profits realized from that contract or transaction.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no written contract between a party contracting to provide maintenance or management services and the Association, which contract provides for operation, maintenance, or management of the Association or property serving the Unit Owners shall be valid or enforceable unless the contract discloses any financial or ownership interest a Board member or any party providing maintenance or management services to the Association holds with the contracting party.

Further, and also notwithstanding the foregoing, as to any contract or other transaction between the Association and one or more of its Directors or Officers or any other corporation, firm, association, or entity in which one or more of its Directors are directors or officers or are financially interested: (i) The Association shall comply with the requirements of F.S. 617.0832; (ii) The disclosures required by F.S. 617.0832 shall be entered into the written minutes of the meeting; (iii) Approval of the contract or other transaction shall require the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Directors present; and (iv) At the next regular or special meeting of the members, the existence of the contract or other transaction shall be disclosed to the members. Upon motion of any member, the contract or transaction shall be brought up for a vote and may be canceled by a majority vote of the members present. Should the members cancel the contract, the Association shall only be liable for the reasonable value of goods and services provided up to the time of cancellation and shall not be liable for any termination fee, liquidated damages, or other form of penalty for such cancellation.
